A05 Testing Plan

1. Scope: navigation flows & responsiveness
2. Target audience: students at FUS
3. Devices & Browsers: desktop, preferably Chrome
4. Task scenarios
   1. View meal plan balance
      - Start: dashboard
      - Instructions: use the quick-access chips
      - End: browser open to idx.transactcampus.com with meal plan balance visible
   2. View instructions to install PrintAnywhere on Windows
      - Start: dashboard
      - Instructions: quick-access chips
      - End: browser open to pdf of "Add PrintAnywhere Windows.pdf"
   3. View current SWOP openings
      - Start: dashboard
      - Instructions: use nav bar on side
      - End: browser open to bulletin.franciscan.online/#/post/swop-job-openings
   4. Access Handshake
      - start: dashboard
      - Instructions: search bar
      - End: browser open to franciscan.joinhandshake.com

5. Book a study room in the Center for Success
- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: quick-access chips
- End: Microsoft bookings page for Center for Success
6. View CTK Chapel schedule
- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: scroll to "My Groups"
- End: text expanded or image selected on latest chapel schedule post
7. View course and fee statement
- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: quick-access chips
- End: browser open to pdf of course and fee statement
8. View unofficial transcript
- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: use nav bar on side
- End: unofficial transcript displayed on screen
9. Apply for Austria
- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: nav bar on side
- End: browser open to encounter.franciscan.edu/register/austria-fns

10. View Academic Calendar

- Start: dashboard
- Instructions: nav bar or chips
- End: browser open to pdf of current academic calendar

5. Metrics:

- number of clicks: more clicks = worse UI/UX
- time to perform: longer time = worse UI/UX
- number of hints given: more hints = worse UI/UX